Prior to your child receiving their First Reconciliation

- Please take your child with you to visit Saint Luke chapel and show them the Confessional. (Although children may be making their First Reconciliation in the Church, this will help them to know that reconciliation is a Sacrament meant to be received more than once).
- The Confessional has been renovated. We kneel behind the screen to go to confession.
- Please let your child know that the Sacrament of Reconciliation is a joyous occasion because they receive unconditional love and forgiveness from God.

Priests

Father Guest and Father Joseph will strive to make you and your child feel at ease. Reconciliation is a Sacrament of peace, healing and forgiveness.

The Reconciliation Service

On the day of First Reconciliation:

- Children should dress in their Sunday clothes or their school uniform if a SLS student--no jeans or tee shirts.
- Students will proceed to their classes and will be brought over to the church or chapel by their teacher. Students who are homebased or who attend another Catholic school outside of St. Luke School, should meet in the Chapel on Monday evening at 4:30 pm.
- Father Guest will lead us in prayer and we will pray the Act of Contrition together.
- Students will then be given the opportunity to go to Confession.
- Students will say their penance and then wait for closing prayer.
- Father Guest will lead the Closing Prayer. Students will then return to their respective classes. Homebased students/Other Catholic School students will be able to go home after the Closing Prayer.
- Please be mindful of the sacredness of the sacrament and refrain from conversations while in the chapel and church.

November 20, 2022

Dear Parents,

“But whoever is joined to the Lord becomes one spirit with him.”~1 Corinthians 6:17

We look forward to the celebration of your child’s Sacrament of Reconciliation at Saint Luke Church. This sacrament is one of the Catholic Church’s greatest treasures. It is a sacrament of peace, healing and forgiveness that helps us put our past sins behind us, reconcile ourselves with God and bask in the security of God’s unconditional love for us.

Parents are the first and most important educators of their children especially in matters of faith. Preparation for the Sacrament of Reconciliation is an important part of your child’s spiritual development. As parents, you have the responsibility of helping your child distinguish between right and wrong, good and evil. You are the ones who have the greatest influence on your child’s system of values and morality. It is through your lives that your child comes to understand and model forgiveness, compassion and mercy.

The book “Blessed: First Reconciliation” from Dynamic Catholic has been distributed to your child in order to assist them with preparation for the sacrament. We trust you will find the chapters, lessons and activities valuable in using this book with your child. Our prayer is that sharing this preparation with your child will be a very rewarding experience.

Please return the “Blessed: First Reconciliation” book to teacher/catechist (or have it checked off by the Office of Religious Education if students are homebased) the week of January 22, 2023

We wish you well as you embark on this journey, together with your child. As always, please feel free to contact the office if you have any questions. We look forward to sharing this special time with your family. We look forward to seeing you at the First Eucharist Parent Meeting on February 15, 2023 at 7 pm in Flaherty Hall. Know of our prayers for you!

Peace in Christ,

Emily T. Teter
Director of Religious Education

Blessed: First Reconciliation

We are excited to be using Blessed: First Reconciliation to help your child prepare with you for First Reconciliation. Produced by Dynamic Catholic, the series is interactive and allows for students to use a book as well as to watch videos as part of their at home preparation.

Your student has been given their copy of Blessed: First Reconciliation and parents should go online here: <https://www.dynamiccatholic.com/plus/blessed-seasons.html> to access the Leader's Guide as well as the videos needed to walk them through each chapter. Please be sure to select the Leader's Guide for First Reconciliation. The leader's guide is easy to use, although you may need to adapt as you go, since you are working one on one with your child as opposed to your child being in a classroom setting.

There are six chapters (referred to as seasons online) which are meant to take about an hour and a half each to complete. You know your child best, so feel free to go through the chapters with them in a way that best suits them. Some children will thrive doing one chapter in a sitting and others will need them broken up. Regardless of how you choose to do the lessons, students will need to have their books completed the week of January 22. The book will be returned to your child.

Should you need a Catholic Bible or any other resources to help your child prepare, please reach out to our Office.

Preparing Your Child for the Sacrament of Reconciliation

Being a witness to your faith is the most important way to teach your child the faith. Teach your child by your example. Take your child with you to church and confession. Go to Mass weekly and on Holy Days.

Your child needs to sense and see the joy, love and security of your lived faith.

Children behave much better in response to our positive expectations than to criticism. If we expect them to do wrong, they probably will. If we indicate that we expect them to rise to our high expectations of them, they are more likely to do so.

Express forgiveness toward your child. Say, "I forgive you". Ask for forgiveness when you have been unjust.

Help your child express forgiveness to someone who has injured or hurt him/her.

Make the words "I'm sorry" and "please forgive me" part of your family communication.

Help a child go beyond being sorry out of fear of punishment or being caught, to being sorry or seeking forgiveness because of love and concern.

Help your child learn from their mistakes. Help him/her see the consequences of their behavior.

Pray together. Pray with your child. Ask your child to pray for you. Help your child to learn the Our Father, Hail Mary, Glory Be and the Act of Contrition.

Read Scripture. Tell Bible stories, especially the parable of the Prodigal Son: Luke 15:11-24 and the story of the Lost Sheep: Luke 15:1-7

Discuss stories, TV shows, commercials or real life experiences involving moral decisions.

Guide your child in a short examination of conscience before bedtime. Pray an Act of Contrition. Pray before bed.

Look forward to the day when your child will receive the Sacrament of Reconciliation for the first time. Perhaps prepare a countdown and then a celebration the day they receive the sacrament.

THE SACRAMENT OF RECONCILIATION AT SAINT LUKE PARISH

Make the SIGN OF THE CROSS: "In the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit. Amen."

SAY "Bless me, Father, for I have sinned."

CONFESS your sins by explaining what you have done for which you are sorry.

SAY "For these and all my sins, I am sorry."

The priest will give a penance for you to say or do AS SOON as you are done with penance.

The priest gives Absolution:

"God, the Father of mercies, through the death and resurrection of his Son has reconciled the world to himself and sent the Holy Spirit among us for the forgiveness of sins; through the ministry of the Church may God give you pardon and peace, and I absolve you from your sins in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit. Amen."

SAY "Amen."

The priest may say, "Go in peace."

SAY "Thank you, Father."

You may say your penance in the Chapel or in the pews marked off in the front of the Church. After you are done with your penance, please return to the pews in the church/chapel to wait for the final blessing!
